Rodriguez is accused of being seated in the car and pointing a shotgun at the couple. He is accused of pulling the trigger, but the firearm did not fire. Mejia is accused of standing near the car and pointing a handgun at the victims. The wife attempted to call the police from a cell phone, but Rodriguez is accused of taking the phone from the victim. The defendants are accused of then fleeing the scene. DNA Match In 2005, Rodriguez's DNA was taken as a result of another case and was submitted to the national DNA database, Combined DNA Index System (CODIS). After the submission, an error was made and Rodriguez's DNA was mistakenly not entered into CODIS. This error went undetected. Since 2005 Rodriguez's criminal record has reflected that his DNA was in CODIS. In July 2009, Rodriguez pleaded guilty (Case #09CF0382) to one felony count of possession of a controlled substance and one misdemeanor count each of resisting a peace officer and battery on a peace officer. He was sentenced to 212 days in jail, three years of formal probation, and was ordered to submit his DNA to the OCDA's local DNA database. Due to the erroneous notation on his criminal record that Rodriguez's DNA was already in CODIS, his DNA was not resubmitted to the national database. Rodriguez was linked to the Dec. 6, 2009, crime using the OCDA's local DNA database.

Brown's new prey -- a 34-pound, 7-year-old Jane Doe #2, an immigrant from Cambodia -- was walking to school shortly before 8:00 a.m. Brown forcibly pulled her off the street and put her in his red van while she screamed "Go to school! Go to school!" He later parked his van, dragged her into the back, and threatened to kill her by cutting her body into little pieces while holding a knife to her chest. Brown showed her how serious he was by showing her bloody clothing and an even larger knife. He drove her to a cemetery where he threatened that she would be buried, along with his other victims, if she disobeyed him. He sexually and violently assaulted Jane Doe #2, including forcing her to orally copulate him and repeatedly sodomizing her because she was too tiny to rape. The abuse continued until she vomited on the carpet. Brown discarded her on a street corner after repeating his threats. The terrified, crying victim was lost and wandered for a while. She stood next to a market until a passer-by stopped and called the police. For these crimes, Brown was sentenced to 49 years in prison in 1985.

WHITE, STEVEN WYVERN In 1986, White, then 29 years old, is accused of befriending 79-year-old Cedric Horn, a semi-retired dentist. White is accused of persuading Horn to enter into business dealings with him. White is accused of gaining access to the victim's bank accounts and fraudulently transferring funds from the victim's account into the defendant's personal account. On March 7, 1986, Horn had left his home to drive to a business meeting in northern California and then to visit his daughter in Oregon. During the trip, the victim contacted his daughter to let her know that he changed his mind about visiting Oregon and was returning to Santa Ana. Sometime between the phone call to his daughter and March 13, 1986, White is accused of murdering the victim. On April 7, 1986, the Orange County Sheriff's Department (OCSD) began investigating the victim's disappearance. OCSD discovered the victim's car in Houston, Texas, and the passenger seat headrest soaked in blood. A DNA profile was then created from the evidence that was collected which matched the victim. The victim's body was never recovered. As OCSD continued investigating this case, White is accused of depositing a $60,000 check, taken from Horn's account, and then fleeing California.	08/18, C55, 8:30 AM	PRE-TRIAL	KEITH BURKE	HOMICIDE	15CF1206
WILLIAMS, JOHN/ DAVENPORT-CULPEPPER, JAZMINE CC.* In October 2015, Williams is accused of using social media to contact Jane Doe. manipulating the victim in order to force her to engage in commercial sex for his benefit. Both of the defendants are accused of traveling with the victim to areas known for prostitution and human trafficking in Orange County. Davenport-Culpepper is accused of telling the victim how to solicit commercial sex and taking sexually explicit photos of the victim to post on websites known for prostitution and human trafficking. Williams is accused of threatening Jane Doe with violence if attempted to leave or did not meet the $400 quota that he set. Williams is also accused of depriving the victim of food and/or sleep if she did not meet the quota and forcing the victim to work seven days a week. The Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force (OCHTTF) began investigating this case after the victim contacted an Orange County Sheriff's Department (OCSD) deputy in Stanton. Both of the defendants were arrested by members of the OCHTTF that day in Buena Park.
RODGERS, ROBERT GABRIEL On the morning of Nov. 14, 2014, Rodgers is accused of entering the Volcano Tea House in Garden Grove prior to the business opening. He is accused of stabbing 24-year-old employee Cesar Ramirez-Raphael multiple times as the victim was cleaning the business. The victim died as a result of multiple stab wound injuries. At approximately 6:20 p.m., Hermosillo is accused of removing the victim's helmet and pushing her baby from the parking structure with the intention of murdering him with the four-story fall. After attempting to murder Baby Doe, Hermosillo is accused of walking inside the hospital, validating her parking, and fleeing the scene. A witness who saw the baby falling through the air called 911 and the Orange Police Department (OPD), who is investigating this case, responded to the scene. Baby Doe was transported to the trauma center at the University of California, Irvine Medical Center and died two days later. OPD obtained a license plate number from a vehicle and matched it to an address in La Habra. The La Habra Police Department (LHPD) and OPD began to communicate and it was determined that Hermosillo's husband had just called LHPD to report the defendant and his son missing. At approximately 10:15 p.m., Hermosillo is accused of driving past CHOC on Main Street and was observed by an OPD officer. She was arrested at the scene.
LE, CA VAN At approximately 2:30 a.m. on July 4, 1999, a group of Gang A members were at a restaurant in Westminster known to be frequented by Gang B. Several Gang B members confronted the Gang A members and ultimately vandalized a vehicle and assaulted a member of Gang A using a metal steering wheel lock. Over the course of that morning and afternoon, multiple retaliatory altercations occurred between members of the two gangs. Members of both gangs repeatedly armed themselves with firearms	08/18, C5, 9 AM	PRE-TRIAL	TROY PINO	HOMICIDE	05ZF0085

The defendants engaged in gunfire, car chases, and other violent and aggressive behavior throughout the day. At approximately 2:30 a.m. on July 5, 1999, members of Gang A armed themselves and drove to the same restaurant where the assault occurred 24 hours earlier in search of rival Gang B members to shoot. When the car of Gang A members pulled into the parking lot, members of Gang B began shooting at the car. Shots were fired by members of both gangs. Duy-Nguyen The Doan, a member of Gang A, was riding in the backseat of the car driven by his fellow gang members and was murdered by being shot one time in the head.
VALDIVIA-GUZMAN, GABINO/ VALDIVIA-GUZMAN, ZENAIDO* In September 2009, brothers Zenaido Valdivia-Guzman and Gabino Valdivia-Guzman are accused of picking up Jane Doe in Santa Ana. Gabino Valdivia-Guzman is accused of driving the van and Zenaido Valdivia-Guzman is accused of sitting in the back, out of sight from the victim. Jane Doe began to panic after getting into the van and discovering the second man inside. When Jane Doe began to scream and attempted to get away, Zenaido Valdivia-Guzman is accused of pulling her into the back of the van and repeatedly beating her in the face and neck as she struggled to escape. Zenaido Valdivia-Guzman is accused of strangling and murdering Jane Doe. Gabino Valdivia-Guzman is accused of driving his brother and the victim to an industrial business parking lot in Irvine. The two defendants are accused of dumping the victim's body	08/18, C5, 9 AM 08/28, C43, 9 AM*	PRE-TRIAL JURY TRIAL*	CYNTHIA HERRERA	HOMICIDE	10HF1962

On Nov. 5, 2010, Zenaido Valdivia-Guzman's DNA was linked to the murder stemming from a 2009 Orange County misdemeanor conviction for domestic violence. IPD determined through subsequent investigation that Gabino Valdivia-Guzman was also involved in the murder.
HOECHSETTER, MEGAN ANN Hoechstetter, who has previously used names Megan Ann Nunez and Megan Ann Choate, ran a business called Pawlosophy, which she falsely represented as an animal rescue. The defendant is accused of charging approximately $400 for each 8-week-old dog. Hoechstetter is accused of advertising and selling the puppies without seeking veterinary care. Between March 21, 2014, and March 1, 2017, Hoechstetter is accused of abusing and failing to care for over 100 puppies. The defendant is accused of knowing the dogs suffered from viral and parasitic infections including parvovirus, coccidia, and giardia, and failing to disclose the illnesses to dog purchasers. Approximately 30 puppies died or had to be euthanized soon after they were adopted, and most of them suffered from severe diarrhea. On Jan. 1, 2017, a family adopted a puppy named Bailey from Hoechstetter. The dog was seriously ill with parvovirus, and died on Jan. 8, 2017. The owners reported the defendant to the Irvine Police Department (IPD), who investigated this case. On Jan. 11, 2017, IPD contacted Hoechstetter and the defendant is accused of having six puppies for sale in her vehicle's trunk. ARROYO, JORGE / QUIJAS, NICOLE LYNN / SONTAG, BRANDON MATTHEW At approximately 5:50 p.m. on May 26, 2015, Arroyo, Quijas, and Sontag, along with other SAPD officers, were serving a search warrant signed by a magistrate on Sky High Holistic, a marijuana dispensary on 17th Street in Santa Ana. It was alleged that the dispensary was operating without proper permits to sell medical marijuana. The dispensary had two video surveillance systems, a visible 16-camera system and a hidden 4-camera system. SAPD personnel legally disabled 16 surveillance cameras, following investigatory and officer safety protocol. The hidden 4-camera system continued to record during the execution of the search warrant. Sontag is accused of damaging five of the previously disabled surveillance cameras by banging and smashing the camera lenses into the corner of a display case and cash register, and banging the cameras into the corner of a shelf and safe. Each camera is valued between $80 and $100. At various times, Sontag, Quijas, and Arroyo are accused of entering the break room and taking snacks available to staff, including Detour Simple protein bars and Mrs. Thinsters cookies. The three defendants are accused of consuming the food items and sharing the protein bars with other SAPD personnel. Before leaving the premises at the conclusion of the search warrant, Quijas and Arroyo are accused of taking extra cookies with them.	08/21, C47, 8:30 AM	JURY TRIAL	BRETT BRIAN	SPECIAL PROSECUTIONS	16CM02387

The defendant posted sexually explicit advertisements of several of the victims on websites known for soliciting commercial sex. Spurlock set a quota of $1000 a day and kept the money the victims received from sex purchasers for himself. The defendant told multiple victims that he was watching them at all times and required them to check in with him regularly. In July 2011, Spurlock made several calls from Orange County Jail in order to dissuade a victim, Jane Doe 1, from testifying against him. The defendant isolated the victim and prevented her from seeing her family without permission. In April 2014, Newport Beach Police Department (NBPD) began investigating Spurlock for an unrelated matter. NBPD conducted surveillance of the defendant and Jane Doe 1, at an apartment complex in Santa Ana. Spurlock and the victim drove vehicles registered in the defendant's name. On several occasions between April 2014 and May 2014, the officers observe Jane Doe 1 and two other victims at a hotel in Costa Mesa known for prostitution. The rooms were often registered under Jane Doe 1. Between April and June 2014, NBPD officers discovered several sexually explicit advertisements online of Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 soliciting commercial sex. On July 9, 2014, NBPD contacted the Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force (OCHTTF) and conducted multiple joint undercover operations that resulted in contact being made with Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 3. Officers also observed the victims making contact with several sex purchasers. On July 17, 2014, Spurlock was contacted and arrested by NBPD officers near the apartment complex in Santa Ana and Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 3 were contacted at the hotel in Santa Ana by OCHTTF officers.

During their investigation, NBPD officers discovered text messages containing language consistent with the defendant pimping the victims, other evidence of pimping and pandering, two firearms, and over $14,000 in cash in Spurlock's apartment. Spurlock beat Jane Doe 1 and another victim, Jane Doe 7, on several occasions and pimped and pandered several more victims. On one occasion, the defendant met up with Jane Doe 7 in Las Vegas and drove the victim outside of the city and beat her because he thought she was seeing other clients without his permission.
