Orange County District Attorney Warns Public about Extremely Dangerous and Violent Criminal Now at Large after Being Released to Halfway House on Electronic Monitoring

*Ike Souzer has violent history of attacking correctional officers;
Prosecutors had warned he poses a significant public safety threat.*

SANTA ANA, Calif. – The Orange County District Attorney’s Office is warning the public about an extremely dangerous and violent criminal who is now at large after being released on electronic monitoring to a Santa Ana halfway house from the Theo Lacy Facility in Orange. In addition to other charges, he was convicted in December of attacking three correctional officers and was ordered to wear an electronic monitor for the remainder of his sentence which was set to expire on July 9, 2023.

THIS INDIVIDUAL SHOULD BE CONSIDERED EXTREMELY DANGEROUS AND VIOLENT. DO NOT APPROACH.

IF YOU SEE HIM, CALL 911 IMMEDIATELY.

Ike Nicholas Souzer
